AFTERNOON DISPATCHES

A Villain in the Treasury Department Deserves Hanging.

Guiteau's Faith Never Wavers—Threat to Assassinate Arthur—Mrs. Christiancy—Tornado's Ravages.

Associated Press Dispatches.]

WASHINGTON, May 23.—Secretary Folger has been led to believe that the currency has been duplicated in a number of instances, and that transfers from the original plates have got into the hands of outside parties. A forged plate has been placed in his possession, and experts declare it to be a transfer of the original. The Cabinet has authorized Folger to investigate in his own way. Doyle, the Chicago bond forger, is to be released in return for valuable information.

GUITEAU.

After the adverse decision to-day, counsel Reed visited Guiteau, who seems, Reed says, to have perfect faith in the belief that he is coming out all right in the end. A writ of habeas corpus will be applied for. Guiteau is in a rage over the proposition to give his head to the doctors for examination.

THE ELECTION CASE.

The struggle in the House over the contested election case of Mackey vs. Dibble was proceeded with this afternoon. Randall raised the question of consideration in antagonism to the effort of Calkins to call up the case.

LIEUTENANT FLIPPER.

WASHINGTON, May 23.—The case of Lieutenant Flipper is now before the President for action.

Mexican Justice.

CITY OF MEXICO, May 22.—The five men who attempted to destroy the bridge on the Mexican National railroad on Friday were caught yesterday by the Governor and immediately shot.

Threat to Assassinate Arthur.

NEW YORK, May 23.—When Postmaster Pearson reached his office yesterday he found a Postal card addressed to President Arthur, notifying him that if he didn't recall Minister Lowell from England and ask the unconditional surrender of all American citizens in British dungeons without trial, he would be assassinated. The writer will be sought for.

Death of Moses Taylor.

NEW YORK, May 23.—Moses Taylor died here this morning.

Pennsylvania Politics.

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—The Times says that Marshall's letter declining the nomination for Congressman at large will be a racy and pungent production, and will leave no doubt in the public mind as to his present political status. He heartily sympathizes with the Independents in their bolt against bossism, and is as implacable in his hostility to the present Senator Cameron as he was in his hostility to the elder Cameron more than twenty years ago.

A Strike Imminent.

PITTSBURG, May 23.—The conference between the iron manufacturers and the Workmen's Association on the new scale of wages failed to reach an agreement. A general strike on June 1st is thought to be inevitable. It will throw 30,000 men out of work.

A Murderer Captured.

MOUNT VERNON, Ill., May 23.—Robt. A. Smith, who murdered Charley Yost here, was captured by a posse after being shot at several times and seriously wounded. There are fears of mob violence. He is now in White county.

Mrs. Christiancy.

DETROIT, May 23.—In the Christiancy divorce suit the depositions of Christiancy's two sons were taken here to-day. They relate to the amour between Mrs. Christiancy and Mr. Haight in South America, and other shameful facts.

Apportionment in Nebraska.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 23.—Burns' apportionment bill has passed the Senate. It divides Nebraska into three Congressional districts. It is very pleasing to the southeastern counties, but displeases Lincoln and Omaha.

A Storm's Doings.

HOT SPRINGS, May 23.—Reports of the destruction by the terrific tornado last week in Polk County are coming in. The residence of Mr. Turner, at Iron Forks, was demolished, two children were killed, and Mr. Turner badly and his wife fatally injured. In escaping some of the inmates had their clothes torn from their backs. Dr. McDaniels' residence was torn to pieces and his wife was seriously if not fatally hurt. Mr. Lindsey's family were badly hurt, and Mrs. James Davis, a visitor, was probably fatally injured. Mr. Barber lost every building on his farm, and McKnight's residence was destroyed, the occupants escaping. Joseph Pepper's little daughter was killed. Mr. Holmes and wife were fatally injured. The Baptist Church at Gardners was destroyed. It is estimated that fifty farms were devastated and the destruction in the county never had a precedent. The damage is not less than $180,000 in the two ravaged counties.

Endurance on Horseback.

A remarkable feat of horsemanship and equestrian endurance has been accomplished by M. Prieur de la Comble, Sub-Lieutenant in the Seventh Dragoons. This officer undertook to ride his chestnut mare Mascotte from Luneville to Paris, a distance of 217½ miles, in 72 hours. M. Prieur de la Comble mounted his mare at 2 o'clock on Monday, and duly arrived at the horse show to the Champs Elysees yesterday with half an hour to spare. On reaching Paris, Mascotte, frightened by a tramway horn, had an ugly fall, but neither she nor her rider took any harm, and except that they were covered with dust, both looked as fresh as at the start. A perfect ovation awaited the gallant officer and his now celebrated steed, and a special prize was forthwith awarded for the manner in which the feat was accomplished.—Paris Dispatch.

COAST NOTES.

Measles are so general as to be almost universal among the juveniles of Oregon city.

A Chinaman was arrested and fined fifty dollars at Colusa the other day, for catching shad in the river.

The Asterian says there is gold in the sands of Gray's harbor, and that a company has been formed to work it.

Cranberry culture is receiving considerable attention, and meeting with good success in Washington Territory, on Puget sound.

The Reno Gazette thinks the time may come when the vast water power now running to waste in the Truckee river will be utilized to work the Comstock mines.

Eighty names are already enrolled for the formation of a military company at Santa Cruz, and it is expected to complete the organization at a meeting to be held to-night.

One hundred and five new buildings of the assessed value of $92,000, have been erected in Seattle within the year. The city assessment this year is $2,956,000, against $1,600,000 last year.

John Plate, a miner in the Grand Central mine at Tombstone, was killed last week by falling down the shaft, a depth of 200 feet. He leaves a wife and three children at Merced, Cal.

The canvass will begin at Clackamas County, May 23d, the candidates on the two political tickets speaking at the principal polling places in that county between that date and June 3d.

The little son of O. L. Gordon, of Santa Cruz, who fell down a flight of stairs and struck the teeth of a garden rake into his head, died on Thursday night of lock-jaw, the injury having been received on the Saturday previous.

Preparations are being made to work the placer mines at the head of Soledad canyon, near Newhall, Los Angeles county. These mines have heretofore been worked with good success, but now capital is to be enlisted and water brought in large quantities.

An owl was killed near Yankee Hill, Butte county, last week, to one leg of which, with a piece of annealed wire, was a gold dollar of the coinage of 1856. The bird was an aged one, apparently, and the coin looked as if it had been attached to the bird's leg for many years.

A ten-year-old boy at Prescott, Washington Territory, tried the old but foolish trick of tying the rope with which he was leading a horse around his body. Of course, the horse got frightened and ran, dragging the unfortunate lad over the ground until he was horribly mangled and dead.

The Albion company, Eureka, are making preparations for the erection of a wind-mill to pump water to the mine. This will be the first instance in the State of "wind" being made to do any actual physical work about a mine, though a good deal has been employed in "puffing them up."

Application was made the other day to the county clerk at Santa Cruz for a marriage license, one of the parties being a girl of fourteen years. Although she had the consent of her parents, the clerk refused to issue the license, the California Code establishing the age at which legal consent may be given at fifteen and upward.

THE ADMINISTRATION.

The Californian for June is before us, well filled as usual. Its typography is not surpassed by anything of the kind on the Continent. Among other papers is an able discussion of the Chinese question from a California standpoint, written prior to the passage of the last and approved bill, and of course sympathises with the quite universal feeling of disappointment over the veto. In a note appended the writer heralds the passage of the approved bill in the following appropriate language: "President Arthur has vindicated himself and his administration, and great praise is due to the Senators and Representatives from California, Nevada, and Oregon for the zeal, tact, and ability with which they have pressed the matter to a triumphant issue." This verdict will be the universal one of the Pacific, and will eventually be shared by our Eastern friends.

ANOTHER STRAW.

Says the San Luis Obispo Tribune: "There is a disturbance brewing in the ranks of the Democracy of this county which promises to assume serious proportions. The trouble has grown out of the action of the County Central Committee in appointing delegates to the State Convention. A petition has been in circulation for several days, asking the Chairman of the Central Committee to call a meeting of the committee, and that the committee shall revoke its former action and proceed to call a convention to nominate delegates."

RAILROAD TALK.

The San Luis Obispo Tribune says:

"There has been a good deal of railroad talk recently in these parts, which has been mainly founded upon conjecture. But the Southern Pacific management has given semi-official assurance that as soon as their line is completed through Texas work will be commenced upon the extension of the northern division from Soledad to Bakersfield."

Be Something.

It is the duty of every man to take some active part as an actor on the stage of life. Some seem to think that they can vegetate, as it were, without being anything particular. It is expected he should "act well his part." He must be something. He has a work to perform that it is his duty to attend to. We are not placed here to grow up, pass through the various stages of life, and then die without having done anything for the benefit of the human race.

"I see very little of you," said an old gentleman at a Louisville ball, to a young lady whom he had not met for a long time before. "I know it," was the artless reply; "but mother would not let me wear a low-necked dress to night, as the weather is too cold."

GUARDING THE COUNTY TREASURY.

In all the efforts made by our worthy Supervisors to lighten the burdens of an overtaxed people they will certainly meet with the commendations of all thoughtful citizens. And when they shall undertake to reform any of the systems through which the hard earnings of the productive classes are wrenched from them to support non-producers, they will call to their aid every man whose countenance is worth having. But to win this approval there must be an earnest desire to economize for economy's sake. When there shall be an appearance of a job in any suggestion the Supervisors may make, the people will hold aloof from them, and although they may not be demonstrative in their opposition, the antagonism is nevertheless there. Tricks of politicians have become so common that the people have naturally turned critics, and are not slow to assert there is catering to some persons or ring when there is not an honest avowal of purpose, and circumstances to support the truth of the avowal, in any suggestion which may be made.

Our Supervisors, in a late circular to the Justices of the Peace in this county showed that they were to some extent observant of the ways in which the county funds are being expended; and if we credit them with good motives, and see wisdom in the suggestions they made, certainly their thoughtfulness should be commended by all. They are the watchmen on our municipal walls, and are paid to work in the interests of the people. It is their duty to sound the alarm when a fire is kindled, so that it may be extinguished ere a conflagration results. They are the arbiters between man and man, and are compelled to adjudicate their differences. They adjust our finances and smooth our highways. They close pitfalls in old roads, and compel the citizen to yield his lands for new thoroughfares for the public weal. They must pay for the arrest and prosecution of criminals, and their execution as well. They are to be vigilant that the laws are not trampled upon to the injury of the people, and they must feed the weak and starving, nurse the destitute sick, and bury those of the dead who are without means. The Supervisor has a large field in which to labor, and his work affects the welfare of the citizen to a great extent. And he may with propriety deal with all our affairs, and is in duty bound to discountenance all abuses and remove the cause of them as well.

Of the many ways in which the public funds are being expended our Supervisors have not deemed but one worthy of special mention in their circular, and strange to say that expenditure was one caused by efforts in the interests of law and order and good morals. A law of the land, made in the interests of the people; a re-enactment of the law of all laws, and to which all civilized nations bow in humility; a law direct from the Creator himself, which is being trampled under foot, and we are advised by the guardians of our well-being that the county cannot afford to take measures to compel compliance with it! Men get inebriated and therefore are arrested by men paid out of the public treasury, and are incarcerated and boarded at the public expense, but it calls forth no remonstrance from the guardians of the public weal. A hospital has to be built, a physician employed at great cost, provisions and medicines purchased, servants hired and a great public annual expense borne to care for the sick and indigent, two-thirds of whom, on the testimony of the county physician, are there through causes the law the Supervisors object to the enforcement of—seeks to remove. These facts, well-known, find no lodgment in the manifesto of the Supervisors. They overlook the beam in the eye of one in observing the mote in that of another. They ignore the costs of courts and the sheriff's bills, two-thirds to three-fourths of which are created by vicious habits this law, obnoxious to our Supervisors, aims to do away with. All of this immense burden imposed upon the industrious of the land is not worthy a thought, while a few bills in the interest of law and order, of morality and christianity, calls forth a manifesto which is most terribly out of place, and unsound in all respects.

Our Supervisors are to a degree umpires between our fellow-citizens. On the one side there is a portion of the people desirous of eradicating, as far as possible, a frightful source of immorality and vice, and are backed up by a law which is the embodiment of the sentiment of the people of the whole commonwealth. They seek to restrain the evil doer, and to close the pitfalls into which the young are liable to fall and from which experience proves it is almost impossible ever to recover them. They seek to so train up the youths of the land that they may become honored citizens, good husbands and fathers, and not inmates of prisons and asylums, or untimely, dishonored graves. On the other hand are those of our fellow-citizens who take an opposite view of the matter, and with them is allied all the lawless elements in the community. The hands of the latter the Supervisors have seen fit to strengthen by their course. In their arbitrament they lean to the worse and not to the better side. They have discouraged those who labor for, and wish only the prosperity of their fellow-men. Have these guardians of our wealth and morals done well?

"THE COMMON ENEMY."

In the Examiner of the 22d inst. we find a letter from our Greenback friend Mr. Alfred Moore, wherein he announces that in connection with the executive of the Greenback Labor party, they propose to call a State Convention for the purpose of putting into the field a full Greenback ticket.

In this letter he further says "our cry is The Chinese must not come any more; the bondholders must go," etc. And says that if the Democrats can come over to our movement on these terms "we can beat the common enemy of our country."

Forbearing to mention in this connection an historical incident where three tailors declared themselves as the people of England protested against existing abuses in the government, and promising the necessary reforms. We should like to know who Mr. Moore declares "the common enemy of our country?" Whether this "common enemy" is a party, or an individual? And are they not agreeing with the great Greenback Labor party necessarily a "common enemy of the country?" Of this we should be glad to hear from Mr. Moore with specifications.

E. MEFFKER has been for several years experimenting in sugar beets to ascertain the practicability of raising sugar beets and making sugar from them, in the Puyallup Valley, W. T. Satisfied that it can be done he is now on the Sound endeavoring to raise sufficient funds for the establishment of a factory. To further the object the firm at Seattle have received eight bushels of imported seeds for farmers to test on their lands.

IT is none too soon that preparations begin for the proper celebration of the Fourth of July. San Diego, Sacramento and other towns of the State have already laid their plans and are arranging for a grand celebration of Independence Day. It would be a proper thing for some of our enterprising business men to call a meeting and appoint committees and thus set the ball a rolling. Let us celebrate.

Los Angeles Street.

As an indication of the quiet but steady boom in real estate on Los Angeles street, it is noteworthy that a piece of property on Los Angeles street, purchased about six weeks ago for $85 per front foot, will now command $140 per front foot. Another straw showing the appreciation of values is the fact that the Shamrock saloon property, sold for $4,000 six months ago, was purchased four weeks ago for $7,600. Slowly but surely the merits of this magnificent thoroughfare are being discovered.

Weather Report.

Observations taken by the U. S. Army Signal Service at 8:15 o'clock last night are as follows: Barometer, 30.90; thermometer, 59; dew point, 55; wind, NW; miles per hour, 4; cloudy. Maximum thermometer, 69; minimum, 55.

Beautifully Illustrated.

Nothing, certainly, could be more attractive than the June number of the illustrated Californian. The opening article is entitled "The Two Redwoods," and gives a spirited description of the Coast Redwoods and the big trees. A number of fine pictures accompany this article, showing the Mendocino and Guernville trees, a view at Calaveras, and several cuts exhibiting different growths. Mrs. Victor continues her studies of the California Missions, and engravings are given of the Mission Santa Barbara, two of the Mission Dolores, Mission San Luis Rey, and Mission San Fernando. These two beautifully illustrated papers on the Redwoods and the Missions should be read by every one.

James O'Meara has an able contribution on the "Veto Power and the Chinese," which is exceedingly timely just now. A new serial story, "Thaloe," is commenced in this number by Leonard Kip, whose "Cobweb and Crusty" in this magazine attracted such general admiration. Warren Cheney's story, "A Logical Sequence," is continued, and grows in dramatic power and interest.

There are several fine poems. "Passion Life," by Thomas S. Collier, is an exquisite bit of writing. Sam Davis has a poem entitled "Decoration Day." There are, besides, numerous contributions by leading writers.

THE PRESS OF LOS ANGELES.

"The LOS ANGELES WEEKLY MIRROR, Yarnell, Caystile & Mathes editors and proprietors, is a very interesting family paper, filled with choice reading matter and complete with local items concerning the advantages and improvements of the city and county of Los Angeles. Parties desiring to become fully posted with this section of California could not do better than to send their subscription to the publishers, which is but $2 per year."

We doff our hat to the Journal of Commerce, and extend our thanks for the very kindly notice.

A young lady in a Boston office is so particular about her personal appearance that she always takes a peep in the mirror before answering a call at the telephone.

CABINET MEETING.

The Cabinet had a protracted session to-day, devoted to the proposed Tariff Commission. All the members present except the Postmaster General. Several names were favorably considered in connection with the Commission, but none were decided upon, and it is understood that none will be until enough names can be favorably considered to complete the list when the Commission will be appointed as a whole.

FITZ JOHN PORTER.

The compulsory retirement amendment to the army bill was disscussed, but not concluded and a special meeting will be held to-morrow evening. Logan opposes all exceptions and maintains that it should be general in its operations.

The Loss of Life.

COLLINGWOOD, Ont., May 23.—The latest advices from the wrecked steamer Manitoulin, burned near Killarney, places the number of persons lost at from twenty to twenty-five. The purser did not have time to register all on board and the lost are not recorded, and probably the names of all the victims will never be known.

FROM THE BAY.

Six New Cases of Small-Pox—The Strathairlie Case.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 23.—Six more cases of small-pox were discovered on the steamer Altonower to-day.

The steamer Strathairlie was found to have on board 944 Chinese, being 131 in excess of her allowance by tonnage. This renders the Captain liable to arrest, and will cost the consignees a penalty of $6,550, or $50 per head of excess. No small-pox has yet been discovered on her. A rigid examination will be made to-morrow.

TOMBSTONE WATER WORKS.

Twenty-four Miles of Pipe—1,500,000 Gallons Daily.

TOMBSTONE, May 23.—The Huachuca Water Company have pipes laid to this city, and will be ready to deliver water in a few days. The source of supply is at the Huachuca Mountains, being the concentration of several streams from the different cañons of the mountains. This work has been under way since last July, and is a complete success as finished. The main line of pipe, about twenty-five miles, will proceed from another cañon in the mountains with five miles of pipe. The greatest fall of any in the United States of like character. A stream capable of running 1,500,000 gallons of water daily is in full flow, and a reservoir capable of holding 1,250,000 gallons, is completed. This work contemplates the removal of the quartz mills from the San Pedro River to Tombstone, being heretofore at that point in consequence of the scarcity of water. The cost of the works exceeds $500,000, the capital being furnished by the New York, New England and Western Investment Company of New York city. The project is of great promise to the future of Tombstone and will be of vast benefit to mill men, as more than $10,000 is daily spent in freighting ore from San Pedro river to the mill sites. The removal of the mills and the erection of new ones will be of vast benefit to the community and will largely increase the bullion output.

CONVICTED.

In the case of Potter, on trial before the District Court for incest, the jury returned a verdict of guilty after an absence of half an hour.

State Sunday School Convention.

The California State Sunday School Convention met last week in Stockton, and held a most successful session. Just before its adjournment sine die, the question as to where the Convention would convene next year came before the Convention, when H. C. Sigler, of Los Angeles, submitted the following: We, the Sabbath school workers of Los Angeles, earnestly and prayerfully request that you hold the next annual gathering in our city, believing it would give a blessed inspiration to the Sabbath school work in this part of our State, and we guarantee you a hearty welcome. After considerable discussion it was finally decided that the next Convention should be held in this city.

J. A. REAVIS.

The Largest Landlord in the Civilized World.

A Bit of History and Perhaps a Bit of Romance —Dr. Willing and his Untimely End —The Concession, etc., etc.

Mr. J. A. Reavis, who has become quite prominent of late by reason of claiming title to an immense tract of land in Arizona through Mexican grant, arrived in this city on Monday evening again, and yesterday was interviewed for a short time by a reporter of the TIMES. Mr. Reavis is well known in Los Angeles, having lived here some years since, and was at that time engaged as a reporter on the Los Angeles Star. He then went to Sacramento as a legislative correspondent for papers of this city, and afterward started an educational journal at that place, which had but a short existence. He was then employed on the San Francisco papers as reporter, traveling correspondent, telegraphic reporter and in other capacities. Having served nearly all the leading papers of the coast, and being a trenchant, ready writer, he was never at a loss for a situation. Mr. Reavis was, years ago, when a resident of St. Louis, and in the dry goods trade, engaged in speculating in Spanish titles, buying them up, proving and again disposing of them. In 1864, in partnership with Dr. Geo. M. Willing, he became possessed of the title to the lands in Arizona, which is now creating so much interest.

DELEGATE TO CONGRESS.

Dr. Willing was the first delegate to Congress from Colorado, and had the honor of naming Idaho. He was a confidential friend and adviser of President Lincoln, and from him enjoyed peculiar privileges, among which was a carte blanche authorizing him to call wherever and whenever he pleased upon the United States Army or Navy for protection or assistance. Willing was a scientific man and corresponded with the press almost everywhere. He passed through Southern California with Colonel Thomas Scott's expedition in 1863. His last visit to Arizona was in 1874, where the deed was placed upon record in Prescott. Within eight hours after the deed was filed he was a corpse in the lodging house where he was rooming. His death was by poison. The matter points to four individuals. The papers were for some cause kept back, and did not come into Reavis' possession until about a year ago, since which time he has been working up the case with the proper authorities to obtain possession of the dreariest, most God-forsaken sand wastes and rocky heaps that ever a mortal coveted. For seven years Reavis had been trying to establish the documentary evidence of his purchased title to the great Peralta grant, and for this purpose had made three trips to Arizona, and had demanded sight of the records, but could receive no information whatever. Having assumed the guise of a newspaper correspondent in order to avoid notoriety, and with the aid of intimate friends in Arizona, he was at last placed in the possession of the original papers, which had been in his possession once before, while in St. Louis. This deed, which is published in full, is attended by all the certain marks and signs, unintelligible to us, but required for identification by the law of Spain. Now for

THE PERALTA GRANT

A CONDENSED HISTORY

Of this whole Reavis business that is appearing like a nightmare or dark horse to the Caucasian settlers along the valleys of the Gila and the Salt rivers, who at present are busy chasing the horned toads and Indians off the hot sands of the river bottoms. In the early history of the church, when chivalrous cavaliers planted the banners of the Cross on heathen soil and brought converts to adore the elevated emblems of the mass, there was a Spanish grandee named Peralta, who for his valor was christened El Caballero de los Colorados. His operations were in that portion of New Spain that was also afterwards Mexican territory, now known as the

PIMA COUNTRY

Of Arizona. For the great deeds he had performed he obtained recommendations to the Spanish home Government for the donation of a large tract of land. The petitions or papers of recommendation were carried up by the Inquisition through the different evolutions of red tape to the Viceroy of Spain in the year 1748. The Viceroy issued orders for the location of the grant to be made by the Inquisition, which was done, mapped and recorded in Guadalajara within the four succeeding years. The grant being located, the papers were now returned up through the official channels for royal confirmation, and in 1758 application was accordingly made to the King of Spain, Don Carlos III. In 1772 the King made his final signature, and returned the manuscripts to the royal inquisition of Mexico. Afterwards General Santa Ana sent copies of these papers to Don Peralta. His son, who received this grant and the accompanying copies of the manuscript by will at the death of Don Peralta, when the son was about fifteen years old, sold them to Dr. Willing, who sold them in turn to Reavis, and it was in this manner that Reavis came to claim the title to and possession of nearly five thousand miles of Arizona territory. In

LOCATING THE GRANT

The inquisition corresponded through their missionaries and different agents out on the frontier, and as land was no object with them they unhesitatingly donated as much as the grantee would ask for. This grant they located and surveyed in the latter part of the eighteenth century in the Gila and Salt river valleys, including the counties in which are located the towns of Maricopa, Phœnix, Tempe, McDowell, Tonto, Florence, Pinal, Globe, Casa Grande and the various villages of the Pima and Maricopa Indians. Also the mining districts of Pinal, Gila and Pima counties, embracing the

FAMOUS SILVER KING,

The richest silver mine in the world, and other large and valuable mines of gold, silver, copper and coal. Beginning at the eastern base of the Maricopa mountains, the grant runs eastward one hundred and twenty miles, and is forty miles wide, being four thousand eight hundred square miles, or three million four hundred thousand acres, the most of it capable of being pre-empted as desert land at twenty-five cents per acre. Mr Reavis has, with photographic copies of these different recommendations, deeds, surveys, and different manuscripts and papers now on file in the different cities of Mexico, and attesting to the validity of Mr. Reavis' claims "with confirmation strong as proof of Holy Writ."

The following is a correct translation of the concession or deed to Peralta; as translated by Mr. E. F. de Celis, of this city, from a photographic copy of the original document in the possession of Mr. Reavis.

THE KING,

Viceroy, Governor and Captain-General of the Provinces of New Spain and President of My Royal Audiencia located in the City of Mexico, on behalf of Sr. Don Miguel de Peralta de Cordoba, in conformity with the petition of the Royal Inquisition of New Spain and the recommendation of the Consulate and Judge of Alzadas were approved by that Government and taken before the General Military Commission and by decision of conciliatory judgment on military privileges, and in consideration of and recompense for great and valuable services, as well as for the manner of conducting promptly important battles in the service of the King; I, the King of Spain, by this order and public decree in conformity to the usages of the Crown, recommend to the Most Excellent Viceroy of Spain in my name to give and grant to Sr. Don Miguel de Peralta, common measurement, three hundred square leagues, or 19,200,000,000 square varas of land; [a vara is 33 inches—ED.] shall be situated northerly of the vice royalty of New Spain and be in such form as not to interfere with previous grants, including, however, all lands, waters and running streams, all minerals and all things appertaining. I also declare the honorable title of Sr. Don Miguel de Peralta to be Caballerro de los Colorados. He thus provided, ordered and signed. Dated at Madrid, the twentieth of December, A. D. one thousand seven hundred and forty-eight. I, THE KING.

Royal Scutcheon. By order of Our Lord the King, I, Minister and Senior of the Council of State, have hereunto annexed the Great Seal of State.

I, THE KING.

By order of the King our Lord (Rubic). According to duties permit.

To be investigated and examined before the Chamber of the Royal and Holy Tribunal of the Inquisition in Mexico for proof of the claims of the claimants before Don Cenon de Somedevilla and Marquis of the Ensenada, Secretary of the Admiralty Exchequer and Secretary of War and the Navy.

CITY COURT.

ADAMS, J.

Mrs. Summers, charged with disturbing the peace, had her case set for trial next Tuesday.

The case of William Abbott, charged with arson, was partially examined, witnesses for prosecution heard, and thereafter motion was made and submitted, to be decided this morning at 9:30 o'clock.

The Number Nine.

If any one will take the trouble to scan the police court docket, as published daily in the TIMES, they will not fail to notice the frequency with which the tramps and drunks are fined nine dollars or sentenced to the chain gang for nine days. Why the number nine should be the fatal one is a mystery the judge of the said court refuses to disclose. This fact about the frequent sentences of nine days or nine dollars is known among the tramp fraternity all along the line of the railroad, not only up through the San Joaquin valley, but over into Arizona. The deputy sheriffs that take up the crazy people to Stockton and Napa report that the tramps all up through central California always warn their brethren to beware of Los Angeles and its nine days and nine dollars. It is a fact that this place is very little bothered with tramps. Such a reputation is enviable.

Uncle Tom's Cabin.

The Jay Rial Uncle Tom's Cabin Company will render a new and highly interesting version of the old drama, commencing this evening and continuing till Saturday inclusive, with a matinee on Saturday afternoon. The company will play here in its entirety as in San Francisco, and the same trick donkey, bloodhounds and other thrilling novelities will be features of this excellent entertainment. For particulars see announcement elsewhere. Prices of admission 50 and 75 cents, and 25 cents for children to the matinee on Saturday.

A Mammoth Establishment.

A visit to the mammoth Main street establishment of Dotter & Bradley yesterday demonstrated that they continue up with the times in every respect. Two carloads of furniture will arrive this week, one from Chicago, the other from Grand Rapids, Mich., embracing a full variety of walnut, ebonized, mahogany and cherry. The stock carried and amount of business transacted by this enterprising firm would be creditable even to San Francisco.

Novel Case—in that Family.

Lawyers have novel cases often, but rarely one of the kind that W. P. Gardner had on his hands yesterday morning early. It was a case in which a speedy conclusion was compulsory and no demurrers were admissable, and the doctor and nurse had the retaining fees. The verdict of the jury was, "a nice little eight-pound girl," for whom we invoke the kind consideration of the inhabitants of the world it has come to bless.

Special Notice.

Wanted, by the public of Los Angeles, a first-class hotel and theater combined, or separate. Must be centrally located, commodious, and provided with spacious corridors and other avenues of escape in case of fire. To the right parties the investment will prove a profitable one. For further particulars apply to the public sentiment of Los Angeles.

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

Safe Home.

A note from W. P. Large, Esq., from Dubuque, Iowa, under date of May 16th, brings the intelligence that he arrived home safely with his invalid daughter. It will be remembered that Miss Large spent two winters past here, and was so low when she left that it was feared she might not survive the journey to her home.

Non Est.

The illumination of Weinhold's nursery garden, on Wilmington street, last night, in honor of the opening of the Night-Blooming Cereus flower, as announced in the Express of last evening, did not take place for some inexplicable reason.

TEXAS HEARD FROM.

C. E. Gilbert, of the Abilene "Reporter," writes of Los Angeles.

First Impressions—In Love with the Place—Flower Gardens—Will "Swap" with the Californians.

Mr. C. E. Gilbert, editor of the Abilene (Texas) Reporter, one of the editors from that State who recently visited this place on an editorial excursion trip, has the following to say of Los Angeles in a lengthy communication to his paper:

After leaving the desert twenty or thirty miles behind, we came into a country in striking and pleasing contrast to that we had seen the past two days. Lovely green valleys and picturesque mountain scenery, on either side, above and beyond us; the different shades of verdure blending harmoniously with the varied colors of the flowery kingdom which covered prairie and mountain side, was delightfully refreshing to the sight after so long gazing upon sterile plain and rugged, barren mountain. About fifty miles through this charming scenery and well improved farms, on which were large and handsome frame and brick dwellings, and we arrive about 4 o'clock in Los Angeles, a city of 16,000 inhabitants, within twelve miles of the Pacific ocean.

We are all quite in love with this city, by far the most beautiful—in natural surroundings and elegant and tasty improvements of any I have ever seen. There are buildings here, business and residence, as handsome and expensive as any in Houston or Galveston; and the flower gardens and front yards ornamented with evergreens and rare plants and trees, are not to be excelled in the South. If some of our ladies who the whole year through so carefully nurse a few geranium plants in jars under so many difficulties could see these immense hedges of the finest rose geraniums six feet high, in full bloom, and other equally as luxuriant growths of choice flowers, they would be as much in love with Los Angeles as some of our party who declare they will "swap 'stakes'" with these Californians who talk of going to Texas. Farming lands here are worth from $60 to $250 per acre; and all the farming is done by irrigation, as are also cultivated all the gardens, flowers, orchards, etc. Oranges and lemons grow here to a very large size and of excellent flavor.

Of newspapers there are three morning, one evening and four weeklies; and three or four first-class hotels.

Los Angeles was settled by the Spaniards or Mexicans nearly two hundred years ago, and there are here now some adobe buildings a century old, among them the Mexican Mission. The streets are much after the style of those of Passo del Norte and other Mexican towns. You will get a pretty fair idea of their irregularity by the lines of an M, H and A written one over the other. The population is about 12,000—1,500 of which are Chinese. Wines, wheat and fruits are the principal articles of commerce. I visited one of the largest orange orchards in the suburbs of town; in the one hundred acres are 10,000 trees from one to thirteen years old. The trees begin bearing at the age of eight years, and improve in yield and quality with each year, bearing from six hundred to three thousand five hundred per season. The orange and lemon orchards (as the vineyards, parks and gardens) are watered by aqueducts from the irrigation company's water works. Will write you of the Mongolian in a future letter. Yours, C. E. G.

THE WATER TUNNEL.

A Fine Sensational Story Spoiled by the Naked Truth.

Some of our contemporaries must think that the first of April stretches out way over on to the twenty-third of May by the way they were trying to palm off a sensational story about an old water tunnel under New High street. The facts are these: In 1867, when Marchesault was mayor, the town was watered by wooden pipes that could not resist sufficient pressure to force the water up the hill to Dr. Bush's residence. Accordingly a shaft was sunk near the doctor's house, and then a tunnel was run out from the shaft through the hill to the level of the flume, which it tapped (and that is all the Tapia there ever was about the whole affair). The flume was filled with water at the reservoir by a water-wheel. The old pipes finally wore out, the flume went up itself, the tunnel got closed, and new comers never had their attention called to it, until within the last few days, when the excavations of Messrs. Hellman & Childs for a new building when the tunnel was intersected, and has been in plain sight for several weeks. As to the bones found in the shaft they were probably of some offal thrown down the old well. If the incorrect and sensational reports of yesterday had been published on all-fools' day they would have come with better grace

Those Mangoes.

Woodhead & Gay have just received a lot of mangoes from the East Indies, and the local of a morning paper in noticing this fruit, remarks that "they are said to be very good eating." We suppose from this language that our contemporary has no personal knowledge of the matter.—Express. Well, that is just what some others said, and we preferred to express others' opinions rather than our own. Samples of the fruit were laid upon our table, for which Messrs. Woodhead & Gay will accept our thanks, and it looked very luscious; is a rich golden color, of a curious oblong shape, and seems as though it ought to be good eating. We were unable to keep hold of our olfactories and manage the fruit at the same time, so we didn't eat much. In taste it much resembles the succulent pa-paw, and would be very delicious were it not for the odor.

House Hunting.

At no time since the favorable turn of the tide in Los Angeles has there been such a demand for houses and offices as at present. Notwithstanding the cry a few months since that with the coming of spring there would be plenty of empty houses, it has not been realized, and there is not a day that the TIMES office is not besieged for information of either houses or offices. The real estate agents are overrun and necessarily turn away all house-seekers. A gentleman recently arrived here remarked yesterday that he had canvassed the town more thoroughly than a book agent, but not a habitable house unoccupied was there to be found.

A Katz Fight.

Monday evening an altercation took place in Temple block between D. Katz and L. L. Price. Katz was trying to collect a bill from Price while he was a little under the influence of liquor. Price denied the bill, and hot words passed between them, and then blows. Price drew a pistol, which was taken from him immediately by Mr. Trafford. Sheriff Rowland arrived on the scene by this time and took the combatants in in charge. Price was charged with assault with intent to murder. The case comes up before Justice Fisher.

DON'T YOU KNOW ME, DARLING?

As the story goes 'tis said a conductor young and fair
At Gila Bend on the platform stood as the west bound express stopped there,
And on the train his sweetheart, not met for many a year.
He stepped in the coach to look for her, for the porter had said she was here.

He threw his arms around her, he himself not seen;
She turned on him like lightning; "Go!" 'twas the command of a Queen.
Said he, "Don't you know me, Darling? 'Tis Charlie by your side,
And ere the setting of to-morrow's sun you will be my bride."

"Forgive me, dearest, I thought 'twere other arms than yours," she said.
"Wall I'll be gol darned!" said a man from Vermont, as he quietly bowed his head.
The brakeman passing through the car would fain conceal a blush,
While they two started on the road of life with an express train's rush.

May their journey through life be as pleasant as the route by which they glide;
As they pass from this world to a better may they ever be side by side.
For many kind wishes go with them, which we hope will all prove true.
"For better or worse," as the proverb says; may it be better for them two. F.

PERSONAL MENTION.

W. H. Spurgeon, of Santa Ana, was in town yesterday.

Mr. J. M. Griffith and family arrive home this morning.

County Clerk A. W. Potts will arrive home this morning from San Francisco.

The stately form of General Stoneman was observable on the streets yesterday.

Captain W. E. Greenwell and family returned home to Santa Barbara yesterday evening.

Miss Addie C. Brown goes to-day to Cloverdale, Sonoma county, to teach school in that place.

Judge Charles Silent and two sons are at the Pico House. They will return to Arizona to-morrow.

J. W. Stevens, of San Francisco, agent for the Manhattan Life Insurance Company, is visiting Los Angeles, combining business with pleasure.

George T. Hanly & Co., are meeting with good success in their enterprise. They made a large shipment of teas and coffees to a San Francisco firm on Monday.

George Paul, for the past year one of Harry Siegel's popular and efficient clerks, has accepted a position on the clerical staff of Feintuch Bros., 38 Spring street.

Deep mutterings and growlings, with occasionally a vehemeut outburst—such can be heard daily among the poor unfortunates blessed (?) with buggies, carriages, or other vehicles, because the abominable street car tracks, an intolerable nuisance, are still permitted by a long-suffering public to remain unplanked. The spasmodic combined calls of a thousand and one cry out in one voice, When will the City Council compel the street car companies to plank the tracks?

C. J. Blackman, recently from Blue Springs, Nebraska, has purchased five acres of improved orchard in bearing, adjoining the village of Tustin, for which he paid $500 per acre. He will build a fine house there shortly, and the family will make it their permanent home.

D. Ellsworth, of the Brea ranch, brought in yesterday a fine sample of barley raised in his 500-acre field. Mr. Ellsworth assured a TIMES reporter that the grain measures five feet in height, and that the whole crop would average nearly as good as the sample.

Mrs. Glower, formerly of Santa Clara, but late of Illinois, who has been stopping in the hills above Pasadena, has removed to Boyle Heights, where she could better attend to one of her sons, who is very sick with consumption.

The condition of the sidewalk on the east side of Spring street, between First and Second streets, is daily becoming more aggravating. If the rocks were auriferous they might perhaps be removed.

H. B. Fox is selling the balance of his dress goods stock regardless of cost. His regular stock is now complete in every department, and will be found worthy of inspection.

A. Brown, the undertaker, has purchased a lot on Hill street, between Fourth and Fifth, adjoining the residence of A. H. Fox, and will build a fine residence thereon at once.

Mrs. Clara S. Foltz was to lecture last night in Tucson. It is to be hoped that the citizens of Los Angeles might be privileged to hear Mrs. Foltz on her return to California.

Messrs. Lamb & Warren have succeeded to the business of John Falvey, the stair builder, and will continue the business at the old stand, 159 Spring street.

A water main burst yesterday afternoon on Main street, and run quite a stream of water for a while, till it was fixed.

Albert, the bright little son of John Falvey, the stair builder, is seriously afflicted with rheumatic fever.

Attempted Elopement.

Yesterday afternoon a noted gambler of this city attempted an elopement with the wife of a railroad man, employed on the Southern Pacific Railroad. The woman was gorgeously arrayed and had just taken her seat in the cars, a few moments previous to the departure of the 5 P. M. train for the north, when a policeman placed her under arrest and brought her to the police station. Her trunk was also taken out of the baggage car. Up to a late hour last night the police had not caught the gambler. Meanwhile the husband was out on the track with his engine, and is supposed to be in ignorance of his wife's unfaithfulness. More interesting developments may be expected to-day.
